From the Desk of Our Principal

Welcome back! I do hope that you had a memorable winter break. As you know, another semester is underway at WRHS and it is shaping up to be as eventful as the last! Winter sports and activities are in full swing and classes are going well!

A very important upcoming event that I would like to direct your attention to is Student Led-Conferences. They will occur on Wednesday and Thursday, February 7 and 8 respectively. Conference times are:

- Wednesday, February 7, 4:00 - 8:00 p.m.
- Thursday, February 8, 7:30 - 11:00 a.m.
- Thursday, February 8, 12:00 - 3:00 p.m.
- Thursday, February 8, 4:00 - 8:00 p.m.

One of the most important things that you can do as a parent to help your child achieve is to not only establish regular and open communication with their teachers, but also become informed about what courses and programs your student most enjoys and the ways in which high school experiences and opportunities can and will relate to post-secondary success. Our Student-Led Conferences afford students and parents the opportunity for this very thing, alongside their Advisory Teacher. The primary focus for spring conferences will consist of students' reflections of the courses they've taken and the courses in which they are planning to take next school year. Students will talk to parents about their individualized 4-year Plan of Study, share their academic and personal goals, and provide parents with a comprehensive report that details potential career interests, post-secondary education options, colleges of interest and student transcripts. I would also encourage you to share any other information about your child that would assist us in better understanding their needs.

We plan to offer the same scheduling opportunities as we did in October through our scheduling platform, myconferencetime.com. Students will sign up during their advisory class for their Student-Led Conference during the week of January 22nd. Beginning January 29th, you will have the opportunity to schedule with as many of your student's other teachers as you need to. 15-minute appointments will be available and you'll have the opportunity to choose virtual or in-person meetings. Our Counseling and Administrative Staffs will also be listed on myconferencetime.com and available during conferences. Please do not hesitate to schedule with one of us.

As we move closer to the end of the third 9-weeks, we are aware that some students may be struggling. Tuesday/Thursday Interventions continue and are a great opportunity for students who need more time on campus to work. If your child is referred by our staff, we certainly hope you will support our efforts to ensure their success by encouraging attendance. It is our mission to ensure that every student learns to the best of their ability.

Please let us know how your student is doing. We hope to see you during conferences!

Best,

IB CAS Project: Students Help Feed Topeka

What is CAS?

CAS stands for Creativity-Activity-Service and is an essential component of the IB core curriculum. CAS requires that students stretch themselves and grow outside the boundaries of the classroom by asking them to become active, serve the community, and engage in creative activities.

What are some of our students doing for CAS?

Among other activities, each IB diploma candidate must create, develop, and reflect upon one project that incorporates at least two categories of CAS (e.g., creativity and service). They are required to collaborate with others in the community, and many of these projects are developed to support the people of Topeka in some way.

A few WRHS IB diploma candidates have been working hard to support the mission of one particular local organization: Bee the Blessing. According to the organization's website, "Bee the Blessing, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization, operating for the sole purpose of coordinating food distribution to the Blessing Boxes in Topeka, Kansas. Through a network of dedicated volunteers and donors of food and money, we endeavor to have food in the Boxes on a regular basis."

Bee the Blessing has found at least three such volunteers in WRHS IB seniors Naledi Mackenzie, Sienna Hamilton, and Megan Weis, who have spent the past two years raising funds to repair and fill "Blessing Boxes" around the city. The trio began last year by checking the conditions of donation boxes before repairing and painting them as needed. They have also found the means to fill those boxes. Over the past two years, Megan, Sienna, and Naledi have been awarded nearly $8,500 from the Stay785 Grant administered by the Topeka Youth Commission. With that money, they have filled and will continue to replenish boxes for the community.

"Bee the Blessing aligns perfectly with my values, and as I learned more about the help this organization provides to the Topeka community, I knew I wanted to be a part of that," said Sienna Hamilton of her motivation for helping the organization. She added, "When we share our time and resources with those in need, we not only help to alleviate hunger and discomfort, but we also build connections and foster a sense of community."

Megan and Naledi emphasized the importance of initiative and teamwork as they reflected on their experiences. "The teamwork involved is one of my favorite aspects of the project. I have learned how to effectively achieve a goal through working together," said Megan Weis on some of her biggest takeaways from working on the project. Her project partner, Naledi, agreed: "Though I have been fortunate enough to do this with my team, doing any type of project requires initiative from each individual. Initiative to get out your ideas, find ways to make it happen, and take the first step in achieving whatever the goal might be."

The students have already recruited others to join them in their efforts to support Bee the Blessing, and they hope to pass the torch to younger students when they graduate in May.

◆ Air Force JROTC

During the months of November and December WRHS students competed in the Harvest Cup, which is a competition between the four high schools in Topeka with JROTC units. Our cadets competed well with Kelcie Schneider winning the female flexed arm hang, Jacob Litton winning the male pull-up competition, and Nicolette Jones won the female pie eating contest. Our team of Kenzie East, Nicole Finney, Satine Griffith and Mariah McDonald were victorious in the 4 person push-up competition.

The very next day they competed in the City Drill meet and won first place in Armed Regulation Drill and took second place in New Cadet Drill. Sophomore Aidyn Robinson earned second place out of 100 cadets in the Individual Drill Down.

The academic bowl team competed in the first round of the College Options Foundation Competition and qualified for the second round for the 10th straight year.

When the cadets weren't competing they conducted six stadium clean ups, a mattress sale and packed/moved boxes at Pauline Central elementary school to raise funds for our unit. They showed their desire to serve the community by conducting over 350 hours of community service supporting various veteran celebrations around Topeka.

ServSafe Exam

Twenty-one students in Ms Dible's Culinary Arts class earned their National Recognized ServSafe Certificate right before the Winter Break. Congratulations to those students! The ServSafe® program is a national certification program designed to teach safe handling practices to foodservice employees and others who handle and serve food to the public.

Guest speaker

Jay Tremblay, Assistant Director of Operations talked to students about Chick-fil-A's Personnel and Training. Students were able to learn about the soft skills necessary to become a good employee and ask questions about the day to day operations of Chick Fil A. What helped them to be so successful?

"I learned that before the owner of chick-fil-a started his chicken business he was actually cooking burgers. Chick-fil-a also has about 3,000- 4,000 customers each day! Lastly, you can possibly start working under the age of 16 if you show soft skills like responsibility, hard working, and social skills. If you do work under the age of 16 you can only work 3 hours during the week." Camrynn Ahrens

"I learned from Jay Tremblay that they serve over 3,000 people every day and they give out a meal every 18 seconds. You can be 14 years old to work there if they think you are a good employee at the interview. You start at $9.00 an hour. They are very flexible with your schedule and the atmosphere is like a family. They will also give out scholarships." Taryn Jellison

With an emphasis on helping students be prepared to be successful in high-wage, high-demand careers. Pathways are designed to move along a continuum of career awareness, career exploration, and career readiness. WRHS offers fifteen Career Pathways. Learn more at wrhs.net/cte Please contact Teresa Golden at goldeter@usd437.net.

WRHS Enrollment for 2024-25 School Year

As your student begins the enrollment process you might consider Career & Technical Education classes. CTE provides students with not only career and academic skills, but soft skills that are needed for the modern workplace, such as: critical thinking; communication; team work; citizenship, integrity, and ethical leadership; research tools; creativity; and innovation. Explore course offerings in the course planning guide.

The four main components of a CTE that engage high school students in their learning endeavors:

- Classroom Instruction. Integration of academic and technical skills to support core academic knowledge needs.
- Laboratory Learning. Hands-on learning to develop technical skills to support core knowledge needs.
- Work-based Learning. (Workplace Experience) The goal is to increase individualization as students connect their interests, skills, and goals with career possibilities.
- Student Leadership. Develop a sense of confidence, integrity and belief in themselves and their ideas.

Fun Facts...

How many career pathways are there in CTE?

- 58 career pathways organized around 15 industry sectors.

What is the most commonly taught course in CTE?

- Business education courses are among the most common in CTE because of their versatility. A background in business prepares CTE students to work in almost every career path or industry, especially management.

On December 5th banking and finance / investing students from the WRHS Bank participated in a shadow day at Capitol Federal. The purpose of the day was an opportunity to introduce high school students to the banking industry.

The morning started off hearing from Billy J. Skrobacz Jr., Executive Vice President, Retail Operations! Students then got to tour the home office. Next the students got an introduction to banking and looking at the big picture. The students then got to take a tour of the Home Office on Kansas Avenue. After a highlight from each banking department students had the opportunity to shadow employees from different departments: Marketing: Lisa Fulbright, Fraud: Stephanie Flood, Financial Reporting: David Packard, Retail Banking: Mark Rosen, Loan Servicing: Perry Plummer, and IT: Dana Revels.

This time allowed the students to discuss the following with the student: overview of a “typical” day, what they love about their work, their career path – any degrees/certifications required, company/industry growth potential, things they wished a seasoned professional had told them as a student, and introduce the student to coworkers and colleagues and explain how they and their colleagues collaborate. The shadow time opportunities focused on the following areas: Human Resources/Training, Marketing, Branch Management, Accounting, Audit, Information Technology, Financial Intelligence Unit, Lending/Underwriting, IRA/Regulatory Reporting Department, Banking Operations, Compliance & Risk Management, Cybersecurity, Transaction Account Services, and Deposit Services.

The day ended with a question/answer panel with lunch and prizes! A big thank you to Liz Walker (Human Resources) for planning this day for us at Capitol Federal. If you are interested in an internship or employment at Capitol Federal please visit their website at: <https://www.capfed.com/>

“Spending the day at Capitol Federal allowed me to understand what steps it takes to get jobs in the different business fields, what all of the jobs within a bank entail, as well as allow me to better build preferences for my professional future.” Senior Molly Didde

Book by Joseph Stein

Music by Jerry Bock

Lyrics by Sheldon Harnick

Original Production Directed and Choreographed by Jerome Robbins

Produced by special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI)

One of the most popular musicals in American musical theatre, Fiddler on the Roof has successfully appealed to cultures all over the world for generations with songs such as "Sunrise, Sunset" and "Tradition." Tevye, a poor dairy farmer in a small Russian village, has raised his five daughters with his wife according to Jewish tradition. But one by one, his three oldest daughters resist tradition by marrying the men they choose rather than those designated by a matchmaker. Meanwhile, the Tsar's increasing persecution of Russian Jews leads to the violent disruption of the villagers' lives.

Through laughter and tears, joy and sorrow, this musical will speak to families of all races, ages, and backgrounds, as Tevye and his resilient family experience the daily ups and downs any human can identify with, and the kind of oppression we all must ultimately acknowledge.

FUNDRAISING

We want to help your organization fundraise! Please check with your organization's school or parent representative to see what dates are still available to work concession stands. Working concession stands are a great way for students to use real world skills and support their club or sport all while making money for their organization.

PTO Blues Backers January 2024

LET'S GET READY FOR A SPECTACULAR POST PROM!

Washburn Rural High School's Blues Backers annual Post Prom event is quickly approaching.

For the 37th year, we will offer a safe, substance-free, unifying late-night experience. Our theme for 2024 is A Night at the Circus!

We host this celebration after the WRHS Prom has ended but it is also open to our students who do not attend Prom. Prom and Post Prom are separate events. This casual-clothes event is at the high school. Students enjoy food, drinks, games, activities, and prizes that are all FREE with their $10 admission. Each WRHS senior, junior, and their guests that attend can have a fun time without the drama of risky situations.

This event continues to be a success each year thanks to generous donations from community businesses, local families, and parent volunteers. Gifts, such as merchandise, gift cards, or monetary donations fill vital roles as prizes, foods, or activities. Donors are listed on the website, in newsletters, and on posters.

We also offer $200 sponsorships that allow your business/family/friends to sponsor a game and have your name(s) prominently posted on the game site. This is a fantastic way to show support for the 2024 Post Prom party! (As the PTO is a 501c3 nonprofit organization your donation may be deductible, consult your tax advisor for details.)

Please consider how you will help make this 37th annual event one to remember!

◆ Art Department

15 students in the WRHS Art Department traveled to Fort Hays State University on Wednesday, January 24 for a campus visit and to tour the new FHSU Art and Design facilities. Participants were welcomed by their faculty and had an opportunity to visit with admissions.

Congratulations to the six students who were awarded $1000 scholarships for their portfolios.

Congratulations to freshman Brooklyn Bowling who won first place in the grade 9-10 category of the 2024 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. art competition for her work titled, "Color of Love." Brooklyn received recognition at the New Mount Zion Baptist Church on January 15, 2024 along with a Target gift card and certificate.

◆ Art Department

Students in IB Visual Art and Advanced Painting produced mixed media monotypes for children at Home of Hope, an orphanage located just outside of Dhaka in Bangladesh. This is part of an ongoing partnership made possible by Elaine Pardee, a former Biology teacher at WRHS who in retirement, spends several months each year as a director at the orphanage.
